WRIT PETITION NO. 26084 OF 2007

O R D E R :

Heard Sri Aswath Narayana, representing Sri S.Nageswara Reddy, the counsel for the writ petitioner and the learned Govt.Pleader for Civil Supplies.

2. The Govt.Pleader for Civil Supplies takes notice on 06-12-2007, the matter was adjourned to 10-12-2007 and the matter is appearing in the motion list today.

3. The main contention of the counsel representing the writ petitioner, Sri Aswath Narayana is that relating to shop nos.2 and 10 of Nandikotkur town as on today the authorization is neither suspended nor cancelled. Despite the same merely because some action had been taken relating to some other shops, the essential commodities are not being supplied to these shops for the purpose of distribution.

4. The writ petition is filed for a writ of mandamus, declaring the action of the first respondent in not allotting the essential commodities in respect of shop nos. 2 and 10 of Nandikotkur town as illegal, arbitrary and without jurisdiction and consequently to direct the first respondent to allot essential commodities to the shop nos. 2 and 10 of Nandikotkur town and to pass such other suitable orders as this court may deems fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.

5. Several facts had been narrated in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition.

6. In the light of the facts and circumstances, the first respondent is directed to allot essential commodities to shop nos. 2 and 10 of Nandikotkur town forth with provided the authorization relating thereto is neither suspended nor cancelled as on today.

7. The writ petition is disposed of at the stage of admission. No costs.
